Welcome to Verona

Vanessa Carlon
Director, Palazzo
Maffei House
Museum

"Verona is an extraordinary city in terms of location, beauty and the richness of its territory. Since ancient times it has been splendid, imposing, yet on a human scale.
The history and culture that have made it so can be felt in every view, in every street, in every square.
It is difficult to define it with a single word:
it is a city of opera and music, theatre,
architecture and art, enterprise, wine and food, which make it unique, a great testimony to the past but also a symbol of the ability to renew itself and confront the present.
Palazzo Maffei House Museum is also moving in this direction: through our collection and activities, we make ancient masterpieces and the avant-garde of the twentieth century dialogue with contemporary creativity, to offer ever new inspirations in the name of beauty."

Silvia Nicolis
President,
Museo Nicolis

"The Museo Nicolis is located just a stone's throw from Verona, one of Italy's most beautiful cities of art, rich in historical and artistic evidence and recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Supporting and promoting the culture and uniqueness of our territory is part of the values on which our exhibition has always been based.
Museums today are incomparable places of discovery and memory: they preserve the past to continuously offer ideas and suggestions for the future.
Thanks to our 10 collections, we are one of the most exciting private exhibitions on the international scene: we tell the story of the people, innovations, technology and design that have characterised the 20th century.
The Museum is a true journey through time that fascinates and surprises young and old alike, an experience not to be missed."

Top in Town

1 ARENA DI VERONA

Built around the 1st century A.D., this is a symbol of the city and the largest open-air opera house in the world. In an excellent state of preservation, what once was an ancient amphitheatre where gladiator shows took place is now used for operas and concerts. Every year since 1913 it has been hosting the famous Opera Festival. www.arena.it

2 CASA DI GIULIETTA

This is a tourist must-visit for all fans of William Shakespeare's tragedy "Romeo and Juliet" and their love affair. The 13th-century Gothic tower-house is located in Via Cappello, not far from Piazza delle Erbe: in the courtyard there is the bronze statue of Juliet (which according to tradition grants luck and love to the person touching her breast) and the famous balcony described in Shakespeare's romantic tragedy. casadigiulietta.comune.verona.it

3 PIAZZA BRA

This is the largest square in Verona, overlooked by the famous Arena and a number of historic buildings, including Palazzo della Gran Guardia and Palazzo Barbieri. The characteristic "liston", a sidewalk paved in pink marble from Valpolicella, with which the Arena was also built, is the perfect place to enjoy a coffee or an aperitivo, perhaps just before attending a show inside the amphitheatre.

4 CASTELVECCHIO

This is one of Verona's main monuments and today houses the city's civic museum. Once the military seat of the Scaligeri family, it is now a place of historical interest that contains some of the most beautiful works of art in the city, as well as being an architecturally interesting building. museodicastelvecchio.comune.verona.it

5 TORRE DEI LAMBERTI

With its 84 metres overlooking Piazza delle Erbe, Torre dei Lamberti (built in 1172) is one of the tallest buildings in Verona. The central section of this 12th-century tower is decorated with a large clock, while at the top are two bells, one of which strikes the hour. The top, which can be reached by lift or a spiral staircase, offers a spectacular view of the historic centre. www.torredeilamberti.it

6 DUOMO DI VERONA

The church of early Christian origins was consecrated in 1187 by Pope Urban II and is part of an architectural complex that includes other religious buildings (the church of Saint Helena, the church of San Giovanni in Fonte, the Canons' Cloister, the Canonical Museum and the Capitular library). The majestic and solemn interior of Romanesque design with Gothic touches on the façade contains

Renaissance trompe l'oeil frescoes and the famous painting "Assumption of the Virgin" by Titian (1535). www.cattedralediverona.it

7 BASILICA DI SAN ZENO

The church dedicated to Verona's patron saint has early Christian origins, it is a sacred place par excellence in the city and one of the masterpieces of Romanesque art in Italy. In the shape of a Latin cross with three naves, the interior is on three levels: the crypt, the church proper (or chiesa plebana) and the presbytery. Notable features on the façade are the central rose window, also known as the "Wheel of Fortune", and the bronze portal consisting of 48 panels. basilicasanzeno.it

8 PIAZZA DELLE ERBE

Verona's oldest square stands in the area of the Roman Forum, which for many centuries was the hub of the city's social, economical and political life. Surrounded by palaces, towers and statues from different periods of history, among which the Torre dei Lamberti, it is considered one of the most characteristic squares in Italy. Every weekend a colourful fruit and vegetable market is held here: a typical meeting point of the Veronese.

9 PONTE PIETRA

It is the oldest of the seven bridges crossing the Adige River in the city and now the preferred transit route for those wishing to reach the Roman Theatre. Destroyed by the Germans in World War II, it was rebuilt with the rubble of the original bridge and retains the characteristic shape of donkey's back, typical of Roman bridges.

10 CASTEL SAN PIETRO

To admire the city from a different point of view, you can take a nice walk up to Castel

San Pietro (a funicular is also available). From the top of this hill, you can admire an enchanting panorama of Verona and the Adige River.

11 GIARDINO GIUSTI

Located in the historic centre of Verona, this garden created at the end of the 14th century is considered one of the most significant examples of Italian Renaissance gardens. An oasis of greenery just a few steps from the Arena, created as a backdrop for the Palazzo of the same name. A combination of nature, art and history that recalls many elements of the Medici gardens, an aesthetic reference point for the elite of the Renaissance. As the Grand Tour spread through Europe, the Giusti Garden became a stop for all the great travellers passing through Verona. giardinogiusti.com

12 ARCHE SCALIGERE

The Gothic funerary complex in the heart of the historic centre houses the tombs of the most illustrious members of the Scala family, one of the richest and most powerful families in ancient Verona. Among them is the Ark of Cangrande, Lord of Verona from 1308 to 1311, also known as the friend and protector of the great poet Dante Alighieri.

13 TEATRO ROMANO

The 1st century B.C. open-air theatre was built before the Arena of Verona and is among the oldest buildings in the city. Built on the natural slope of the San Pietro hill on the left bank of the Adige River, it was completely covered by buildings and dwellings after the end of the Roman era. Brought back to the surface at the end of the 19th century, it has been hosting musical concerts and theatrical performances since 1948. museoarcheologico.comune.verona.it - www.estateteatraleveronese.it

14 VIA MAZZINI

Via Mazzini is a narrow cobbled pedestrian street that connects the city's two most important squares: Piazza Bra and Piazza delle Erbe. About 500 metres long, it is considered the shopping street, with rows of modern speciality shops and boutiques of the most famous fashion brands. Together with Corso di Porta Borsari, Corso Sant'Anastasia, Piazza delle Erbe and Via Cappello, it forms a small shopping district.

15 PORTA BORSARI

One of the gates that opened along the Roman walls of Verona, it dates back to the first century AD and was the main entrance to the city, being located along the axis of the decumanus (the main street in Roman times). In an excellent state of preservation, it is characterised by a white stone façade and an overall height of 13 metres, which also includes the upper defensive structure.

16 BASILICA DI SANTA ANASTASIA

The largest and most solemn Catholic church in Verona's historic centre is also the city's most important Gothic monument, preserving important works of art. Founded in 1290, its construction took over a century. The unfinished façade features a magnificent double portal with polychrome marble, reliefs and frescoes. Inside, the basilica has three large naves supported by 12 imposing columns of red Verona marble.

17 CASA MUSEO PALAZZO MAFFEI HOUSE MUSEUM

In a spectacular seventeenth-century building overlooking Piazza delle Erbe, the extraordinary art exhibition born from the collecting passion of the Veronese entrepreneur Luigi Carlon spans more than five centuries of history: a "wunderkammer" with ancient masterpieces in dialogue with the modernity of a private residence. The collection consists of over 350 works arranged in 20 rooms decorated with stuccoes and frescoes. palazzomaffeiverona.com

18 PIAZZA DEI SIGNORI

Also known as Piazza di Dante because of the statue dedicated to the Great Poet placed here in the 19th century, it is located near Piazza delle Erbe. Since the Middle Ages it has had administrative and political functions and from an architectural point of view it is characterised by the succession of historic buildings connected by arcades and loggias.

19 PONTE SCALIGERO

Also known as Ponte di Castelvecchio, it was built in the middle of the 14th century at the request of Cangrande II della Scala. It has been described as "the most daring and admirable work of the Middle Ages in Verona", a masterpiece of military engineering: a robustness that has allowed it to cross five centuries of history and the harshest floods of the Adige River intact.

20 PALAZZO BARBIERI

Headquarters of Verona City Municipality, it is a neoclassical building constructed around the middle of the nineteenth century in Piazza

Bra. Characterized by a majestic façade, for an Austrian military barracks, it recalls a Roman temple in its forms. The Sala degli Arazzi and the Sala del Consiglio Comunale are noteworthy for their paintings and furnishings.

21 CASA DI ROMEO

A medieval building that belonged to the Montecchi family, now a private residence, it is characterised by an alternation of Romanesque, Gothic and Renaissance windows, surmounted by splendid battlements.

22 PORTA DEI LEONI

One of the gates that opened onto the city in Roman times (1st century BC), giving access to the cardo maximus, the city's most important road axis after the decumanus. It takes its name from a sarcophagus found nearby depicting a pair of lions.

FROM THE ANCIENT ROME TO THE CITY SOUND

— Symbol of the city of Verona and the third largest Roman amphitheater in Italy, after those of Rome (the Colosseum) and Capua, the Arena of Verona was built around the middle of the first century AD to host gladiator fights, naval battles or shows with exotic animals.

— Since 1913, when Giuseppe Verdi's "Aida" was performed here for the first time, it has hosted a prestigious opera festival every summer. Attending an opera in the Arena is an experience that takes your breath away, thanks also to the perfect acoustics, due mainly to its particular elliptical shape, which allows the singers' voices and music to propagate perfectly inside, so as not to need amplification systems. Famous artists such as Maria Callas, Luciano Pavarotti, Plácido Domingo have performed here.

— In recent years, moreover, the Arena is often the background to musical concerts, shows of various kinds, sporting events, such as the arrival of the Giro d'Italia or ice skating competitions, some of these broadcast on national TV.

— In Roman times the show took place in the center, with the audience all around, today instead the structure is used as a theater: one end hosts the stage, while the audience sits in a semicircle on the opposite side. Although in Roman times it originally had a capacity of 30,000 spectators, today it contains about half that number, both for stage requirements and for safety reasons.

— Architecturally, the appearance of this imposing amphitheater today is quite different from the original, especially because of the lack of the outer ring. The only part of the original monumental facade still standing is the so-called Ala (Wing), composed of four arches, which has become the most iconic image of the Arena today. In spite of the numerous transformations it has undergone, it is still one of the best-preserved Roman amphitheatres of the Peninsula, thanks to the systematic conservative restorations carried out since the sixteenth century.

— The Arena was built in stone from Valpolicella, the so-called Rosso Verona, a resistant and easy to extract limestone, with a special color that ranges from milky white to deep red. Walking through the long, semi-dark tunnels that run along the entire perimeter of the structure and coming out on the terraces, with the sudden glimpse of the inside of the amphitheater in all its majestic grandeur, is a unique emotion, which takes us back for a moment to the time of the gladiators and leaves us stunned in front of the Roman architectural genius.

THE OLDEST SQUARE IN VERONA

Once a city forum during the period of the Roman Empire, the square was the centre of political and economic life. Among the main attractions in the city today are medieval buildings, including the ancient Palazzo del Comune, the Torre dei Lamberti, the Casa dei Giudici and the Casa dei Mazzanti. On the western side is the baroque Palazzo Maffei (palazzomaffeiverona.com) which houses the prestigious Carlton Collection, offering an extraordinary journey through ancient and modern art, reopening to the public in September 2020. On the superb white marble column in front of Palazzo Maffei is the lion of St Mark, symbol of the Republic of Venice.

The oldest monument in the square is the fountain surmounted by the 'Madonna Verona' statue from Roman times (dated 380) with later medieval additions. The statue is adorned with a scroll in its hands and bears the old motto of the municipality, which reads 'to this city bearer of justice and lover of praise'. Another historical monument is the capital, known as the 'Tribune'. It dates from around the 13th century, a period when it was used for various public occasions: in particular, the podestà sat under it for the installation ceremony.

RUNNING THROUGH HISTORY

SPORT Running in Verona means travelling through history in one of Italy's most romantic cities of art. Verona will host also this year thousands of runners from dozens of countries around the world for the "Giulietta&Romeo Half Marathon".

This event is an international competition that in 2014 and 2020 hosted the Italian Championships. It has always been one of the most participated races in Italy with a certified route that touches the centre and many other areas of the city. Romeo and Juliet and their tragedy narrated by William Shakespeare has thus become one of the most fascinating half marathons in Italy: the Arena, the Adige River, Piazza delle Erbe, Juliet's House, Castelvecchio, Ponte Pietra, Porta Borsari and many others are the landmarks that can be admired in the city while running (or walking).

Along with the 21km, awarded the Fidal Gold Label and in 2021 in second place in Italy in the ranking of the most participated half marathons, this year will be run concurrently with the half marathon the "Monument Run 10k": a 10km route (9.7km approx.), competitive and non-competitive race.

▼ NATURE ON SHOW

CONTEMPORARY ART Protagonist of the exhibition "Contemporary Non-Stop. The Breath of Nature" is this time WATER. A source of life but also a destructive element, the first of the four natural elements invites a number of contemporary artists to reflect on the theme of ecology, of man's relationship with nature, which in recent decades has been compromised by the effects of climate change. Thus continues the journey into the "natural forms" of art begun with the format launched in 2020, in which nature becomes a metaphor for creation, questions man and becomes a cue that translates into the great enigmatic nature of art. The exhibition is open from Tuesday to Sunday, from 11am to 7pm (last entrance at 6.30 pm).

>> ABOUT THE GAM GALLERIA D'ARTE MODERNA "ACHILLE FORTI"

The GAM is a modern art museum in the historic centre of Verona, housed in the Palazzo della Ragione. In fact it was founded by Veronese patron Achille Forti, who at the beginning of the 20th century left his art collection as a fund for the establishment of a city museum dedicated to the arts. This heritage has been enriched through bequests and donations until there are about 1,600 works of art, covering a period of time from the early nineteenth century to the present day. At the end of 2021 it inaugurated a new exhibition itinerary, the result of artistic research aimed at modernity: an exhibition structured according to the formula of the rotation of works, which aims to make known most of the works kept in the deposits, some of which have never been exhibited. The Gallery tells the story of the development of art in Italy from 1830 to the present day, and proposes new itineraries on the themes and insights that have marked the cultural landscape of this time period. Since 1997, the museums has enriched the contemporary section with about 400 works, thanks to purchases, donations, deposits and loans, with the aim of offering the public already established authors on the international art scene, as well as young emerging artists.

◀ ANIMALS IN THE ANCIENT WORLD

ART The exhibition aims to illustrate some aspects of the fascinating subject of animals in the ancient world, presenting not only objects that are not normally on public display, but also dedicating a showcase to a very interesting find that took place in recent years in Verona.

The exhibition starts with some small but valuable evidence of the role of animals in ancient Egypt, in particular the use of mummies of different species as offerings to the gods in places of worship. The documentation on the classical world, in which animals played an important role in mythology and religion, is more extensive. The exhibition closes with illustrations of fantastic creatures, frequently depicted in the ancient world, and with a section devoted to the fascination these beings exerted in the ages following antiquity.

VENICE, 4-21 FEBRUARY
LET THE PARTY BEGIN!

TRADITIONS Carnival in Venice is one of the most eagerly-awaited events both in Italy and abroad. An extravaganza lasting for more than two weeks, during which the Lagoon city is transformed into one large performance amidst masks, balls, prizes and presentations. The most important days of the Venetian Carnival are Giovedì grasso (Fat Thursday) and Martedì grasso (Shrove Tuesday), even though visitor attendance reaches its peak at the weekends. This festival has ancient origins and is associated with the spirit and personality of Venice. This year, celebrations kick off on Saturday 4 February, and end on Tuesday 21 February. The 2023's theme will be "Take your time for the original sign" and Venice will experience a widespread celebration in the city's campi, piazze, calli and streets, with the Arsenale still the protagonist of a grand spectacle on the water and the return of the masked float parades on the mainland and islands. Although when one speaks of Carnival everyone immediately thinks of Venice, one must not forget that there are other cities in the Veneto region that have ancient and evocative traditions linked to these festivities about half an hour from Verona: just think of the Carnival of Arzignano on Saturday 25 February and the Carnival of Schio from 22 to 23 February.

CONTEMPORARY ART The exhibition dedicated to Italian painter Piero Dorazio (1927-2005) includes more than thirty paintings, from public and private collections, which trace an unprecedented profile of his artistic production between 1963 and 1968. From the reticular structures of the works of the late 1950s, we move on to the outbursts of a painting understood as a field of tensions and inventions, without ever disregarding a continuous reference to the historical avant-gardes. Particular attention is paid to the artist's participation in the 1966 Venice Biennial, an occasion in which a personal room is dedicated to Dorazio with twenty-one of the most significant works of the period – many of which are on show in Verona – are exhibited.

LAKE GARDA DESTINATION

Just 30 minutes from Verona, Lake Garda attracts millions of visitors thanks to its mild climate, its old-fashioned atmosphere and its breathtaking scenery, including scenic roads along the coast, Renaissance villas, Romanesque hamlets and small villages.

Punta San Vigilio (Lake Garda)
© STEFANO TERMANINI/SHUTTERSTOCK.COM

Surrounded by three distinct regions – Lombardy, Trentino Alto-Adige and the Veneto – Italy's largest lake is one of the most important tourist destinations in the country. Characterized by a mild climate all year round, Mediterranean vegetation, colours and scents reminiscent of the sea, Lake Garda is surrounded by picturesque villages, seaside resorts, historical remains, harbours, parks and nature reserves: capable of satisfying nature lovers, those who want to discover places rich in history and culture, as well as the more sporty who can enjoy trekking, excursions and above all, thanks to the constant winds, water sports.

The most famous places include Sirmione, the favourite destination of the poet Catullus and Maria Callas, with its splendid Rocca Scaligera, Gardone Riviera, with the Vittoriale degli Italiani, the house-museum of the poet Gabriele D'Annunzio, Peschiera del Garda, with its fortress and 16th-century ramparts. Not far from Verona, we find Bardolino, a very lively centre with its typical maze of alleyways, shops, bars, restaurants and nightclubs, and Garda, where it is worth visiting the Pieve di Santa Maria in Garda, one of the oldest religious buildings in the area, which has a beautiful 15th-century cloister and some 15th-century frescoes. Lovers of architecture should not miss the famous Garda villas, including the 16th-century Villa Guarienti, which stands at the centre of the San Vigilio promontory, with its Italian-style garden and lemon house built in Venetian Gothic style, and Villa Albertini surrounded by an immense park stretching across the hill behind it, in a riot of Mediterranean fauna. History and archaeology enthusiasts should not miss the rock engravings in the Torri del Benaco area. Engraved on a rock that has become a sort of natural blackboard due to glaciation, you will find graffiti from various eras, mostly dating back to prehistoric times.

The area is also characterised by the production of excellent wine and olive oil. Custodian of extraordinary culinary and enogastronomic excellence, Garda is the production area of red radicchio, rice of the vialone nano variety, Lessinia cheeses, fish and Garda oil, and even pandoro and Amarone della Valpolicella, all typical products capable of satisfying even the most demanding traveller.

The nearby Gardaland, one of Italy's largest amusement parks, boasts several of the country's most famous attractions, including roller coasters, simulators and theme parks designed to appeal to visitors of all ages (www.gardaland.it).

THE NATURAL PARK OF MONTE BALDO

It dominates Lake Garda and is the ideal place for a holiday in contact with nature and good food. We are talking about Monte Baldo, a mountain resort in Trentino on the border with Veneto, which offers a 360° panorama of the lake (don't miss the Cima Valdrizza viewpoint at 2,200 m). In the summer months, you can enjoy long walks along the mountain paths, mountain bike rides or horseback rides (for the more daring there are also hang-gliding or paragliding excursions). In winter, the holiday resort turns into a top ski resort thanks to the futuristic Malcesine-Monte Baldo rotating cable car.

Tax Free Refund Guide

According to the Italian law, non-EU resident travellers may be granted VAT relief/refund for goods intended for personal or family use purchased in Italy. This relief is surely an advantage for the foreign travellers: in fact, it allows to save from a minimum of 4% up to a maximum of 22% of the selling price of the goods purchased. Here is a short guide according to the Italian legislation to discover the common system of value added tax exclusively for non-EU resident travellers.

1. VAT (in Italian: IVA) is a value added tax on goods and services, and is part of the European Union's value added tax system.
2. In some cases, travellers may be granted a VAT refund. This refund does not cover the services supplied by hotels, restaurants, taxis or agencies.
3. You may be eligible for a VAT refund provided that:
 - you are a non-EU resident;
 - the goods purchased are intended for personal or family use only and are carried in your luggage;
 - the overall value of the goods purchased exceeds 154,94 Euro (VAT included);
 - the purchase is certified by an invoice. This invoice should include a description of the goods purchased, your personal information as well as the details of your passport or any other equivalent document;

- the goods shall leave the EU territory by the third month following the date of issue of the invoice, as proved by the "customs stamp";
- from 1 September 2018, tax free invoices in Italy must be electronically transmitted by the national seller to OTELO information system (Online Tax Refund at Exit: Light Lane Optimization) and their validation is digitally carried out.
- after the digital "customs stamp" is obtained, OTELO will send a message to the retailer that all the requirements are met and, as a consequence, the retailer will reimburse the amount due or will settle the tax relief.
- the invoice is returned to the Italian retailer within four months after the purchase was made. If the invoice is stamped by other EU countries, it needs to be brought to the shop retailer by the fourth month following that of the purchase.
- 4. The goods purchased and the relevant invoice must be shown at the customs exit point when leaving EU territory (if you intend to pack the purchased items into your check-in luggage, you must go to Customs BEFORE checking in).
- 5. After leaving EU territory, the traveller must return the original invoice, regularly endorsed by the customs office, to the Italian retailer. Said invoice must be returned within four months from the date when the document was issued.

6. The refund can be made directly by the Italian retailer (however, make sure that the shop you've chosen displays a "Tax Free Shopping" or "Euro Tax Free" sign in its window).
7. Several Tax-Free companies are able to offer immediate VAT cash refunds when the goods leave either Italian or EU territory (thus exonerating the passenger from having to return the invoice to the retailer). However, this procedure only applies at major international airports or main border crossings. Most major department stores have Tax Free Refund offices.
8. The services provided by Tax-Free companies imply the payment of a small administrative sum which is directly deducted from the amount of VAT refunded to the traveller.
9. In the event of a traveller not receiving a VAT refund within a reasonable period of time, he or she should re-contact the Italian retailer or one of the aforementioned companies.
10. However, please note, VAT cannot be refunded directly by customs offices.

FOOD & RESTAURANTS

Modern atmosphere, historic flair

Casa Mazzanti Caffè overlooks Piazza delle Erbe, the site of the city market since Roman times.

In the historic centre of Verona, Casa Mazzanti Caffè is located inside the Casa Mazzanti, extraordinary buildings that are among the most beautiful in the whole of Verona: owned by the Scaligeri family in medieval times, they are characterised by their frescoed facades from the 16th century. Because of its location and quality of service, Casa Mazzanti is one of the best-known establishments in the city. A café, restaurant and lounge bar, it welcomes guests from the morning with breakfast and selected coffees and the “cornetti” and artisan pastries by Caffè Wallner. Don't miss the “Caffè Espresso di Casa Mazzanti”, a Carcolito of arabica from Brazil. Called the coffee pearl because the beans, which grow at the ends of the plant, are small and round, have an intense aroma and a full body. English breakfast variations within a typically Italian menu are also available. For lunch and dinner, prepared with the best of ingredients, fresh pasta is carefully cooked every day, dressed with seasonal sauces. Finally, for evenings with friends, cocktails for every taste and aperitifs to perfection. A selection of select wine labels can satisfy even the most discerning connoisseur.

The heart of food tradition

If you want to try Veronese specialties, with a touch of creativity, served in the elegant rooms of a 19th-century building with a dehors on the square, Caffè Dante Bistrot is the place to go.

Since the beginning of the 20th century, the “Dante” has been part of Verona's cultural life, an essential meeting point for city life and the heart of Verona's food and wine tradition. It is reminiscent of a Parisian bistro, a vintage corner with art deco overtones. In the refined setting of Piazza dei Signori, this gourmet restaurant boasts an award-winning wine list and a selection of ethical meats from certified local farms. The cuisine is based on local (and even national) specialties revisited with a contemporary twist. Verona flavours

It would be a pity to visit Verona without dedicating some time to the discovery of the local enogastronomical excellences, some of them are internationally known, others are more niche, but equally noteworthy.

AMARONE

This is a dry red raisin DOCG wine, produced exclusively in Valpolicella, a hilly area surrounding Verona and extending from Lake Garda to almost the border with the province of Vicenza. The climate and soil of this area, protected by the Lessini Mountains to the north and influenced by the almost Mediterranean climate, mild and not very rainy of Lake Garda, contribute to determine the organoleptic characteristics of this wine with its full and velvety flavor, which goes well with full-bodied meat dishes, such as braised meat, stews and roasts, but also with cold cuts and hard cheeses.

RISOTTO ALL'AMARONE

If you are true lovers of Amarone, you cannot avoid to taste a typical recipe where it is the protagonist together with another excellent product of the territory: Vialone Nano rice. This is the delicious Risotto all'Amarone, which you can obviously taste in the best restaurants of Verona.

MEAT-BASED MAIN COURSES

Rich stews served with polenta are also a feature of Veronese cuisine, such as brasato all'Amarone (beef braised in red wine) and pastissada de caval, a horse meat stew made rich with medieval spices.

MONTE VERONESE DOP CHEESE

Another traditional product of the area, which goes very well with Amarone and with the other red wines of Valpolicella, is Monte Veronese DOP cheese, which was born in the mountains of Lessinia, paradise for lovers of dairy products: from butters, to caciotta cheeses, to various malga cheeses.

DESSERTS

As for desserts, Verona's most popular dish is Pandoro. Literally meaning "Pan de Oro" ('golden bread'), it is a sweet brioche-style cake dusted with icing sugar, with its typical eight-pointed star shape. Like the Milanese panettone, but much older, it has become an Italian staple for Christmas and New Year.

Another typical local cake is the Torta Russa, a pastry cake wrapped in a thick almond paste, so-called because its shape resembles that of a colbacco.

Valpolicella-Soave-Lessini Durello

On the trail of taste/1

A few kilometres north of Verona are famous wine-growing areas where many of the world's most exported Made in Italy wines are produced: these include the hilly area of Valpolicella, the kingdom of Amarone, Soave and Lessini Durello. The whole area deserves an itinerary to discover the most prestigious or characteristic wine cellars.

In Valpolicella and its surroundings

Set in the wonderful microcosm of the Valpantena, the valley closest to Verona and rich in numerous nature trails, Costa Arènte is located on a hill 250 metres above sea level. The company produces wines with a strong Valpolicella identity, respecting the territory and tradition, but with a desire to innovate. 35 hectares of which 17 are planted with vines (corvina, corvinone and rondinella) and the remainder with woodland and olive groves. The grapes destined for Amarone, after being selected and harvested by hand, are put to rest in the "fruttaio", while the ageing phase takes place in a state-of-the-art "barricaia". Already a reference point in the valley as a refuge and favourite holiday resort for Veronese families, the estate opens its doors to visitors: from wine tasting to discovering the Costa Arènte vineyards and facilities. Lugana-Custoza-Bardolino

Along the Veronese shores of Lake Garda, the three wine regions of Bardolino, Custoza and Lugana have in common the Garda terroir, which guarantees a moderate microclimate and altitude and a moraine soil rich in humus. Bardolino is a land of red and rosé wines, Custoza and Lugana of white wines, but all are distinguished by their freshness and ease of drinking.

Lugana, a duo of vine and territory

The Ottella winery in the Peschiera del Garda area is one of the most renowned wine producers in the southern part of Lake Garda. Relying on the Trebbiano di Lugana vine, locally known as "turbiana", the company produces modern wines in full respect of the particular characteristics of the territory. A clay and limestone soil of glacial origin of 40 hectares, combined with a constantly ventilated microclimate, results in fine, healthy grapes. A few ingredients, where simple becomes synonymous with quality. The Ottella winery cultivates both white and red grapes, producing a large number of labels. Among the reds, the Venetian wine expressions of Amarone and Valpolicella stand out, while among the whites, Trebbiano di Lugana reigns supreme. Mineral sapidity, aromatic finesse and freshness define the imprint of Ottella wines, which can tell the soul and essence of a grape variety and a territory.

Vicenza, the city signed by Palladio

Also called a theatre city, Vicenza preserves some of the most important artistic and architectural wonders of the Veneto region.

East of Verona lies the city of Vicenza, which bears innumerable traces of Andrea Palladio, the architect who influenced the design of the White House in Washington DC. Notable monuments include the Teatro Olimpico, the Basilica Palladiana and the Palazzo Chiericati.

The Teatro Olimpico is considered the oldest covered brick theatre in the world and hosts classical music festivals, Vicenza Jazz concerts and various other cultural events. Giulietta between legend and reality

The universal fame of Romeo and Juliet stems from a 16th century novella set in Verona, inspired by Dante's "Divine Comedy" and the story of the Montague and Capulet families. The story reached England at the end of the 16th century and was staged by William Shakespeare, whose immortal verses made the two unfortunate lovers universally famous. In the eighteenth century, European travellers on the Grand Tour went to visit Juliet's tomb and would later attribute to her a home in this place where, from the balcony, according to tradition Juliet would look out to talk to her Romeo. Open to the public since 1973, after numerous restorations, Juliet's House has become a house-museum and one of the most important tourist attractions in the city, giving it the reputation of the "city of love". Don't miss a souvenir photo next to the bronze statue of the heroine, better still if touching her right breast for good luck.

MAPS & INFO

Verona, a romantic city

Some information and local tips to experience the best that this charming city has to offer.

Guided tour by Waystours

Situated on the banks of the river Adige in the north-eastern Veneto region, Verona is Italy's second most well-preserved Roman city after Rome. In fact, if you want to take a step back in time, all you have to do is get lost among the arches of the Arena, the Roman amphitheatre and temple of international opera, walk among the almost intact steps of the Roman Theatre, which is still used today for shows and performances, or walk on the Ponte Pietra, built by the Romans around the first century BC. What makes this city - which was Roman, Gothic, Byzantine, Lombard, Scaligera, Visconti and finally Venetian - unique is the harmonious combination of all these dominations. Declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, the historic centre of Verona boasts countless monuments and attractions not to be missed, such as Juliet's house, one of the most visited sites in Italy, and the medieval Piazza delle Erbe, the city's "living room", and then Castelvécchio, an imposing military fortification.

Verona is also the romantic city par excellence, where the timeless love story of Romeo and Juliet is set, where you can stroll through the streets of the centre in a charming atmosphere or where you can indulge in the best of local cuisine after attending an evening show at the Arena. And if all these marvels are not enough for you, you should know that Verona is surrounded by territories of great cultural and gastronomic interest, such as Valpolicella, an area of hills covered with vineyards, where the famous Amarone wine is produced, and Lessinia, with its rich environmental and natural heritage. Finally, with regard to excellence linked to wine, Verona's pride is its participation as the Italian representative in the international network "Great Wine Capitals", which brings together 11 major cities and wine-growing regions around the world. And it will be Verona itself that will host the network's great Annual Meeting in 2024 on the occasion of the "Best of Wine Tourism" award (www.greatwinecapitals.com).
